

ACCOUNTABILITY

for parents/couples

...but pity anyone who falls and has no one to help them up.

Ecclesiastes 4:10

1. How have you grown through Bible study and prayer this week?

2. Have you lived for Christ in front of your family and others this week through your witness, attitudes, actions, and lifestyle?
Where can you grow in this area?

3. Are you being obedient to God?

4. Have you taken time to care for your physical/mental/emotional well being through rest, nutrition, and physical activity?

5. Have you read viewed or listened to anything that would compromise your physical, mental, and emotional purity this week?

You and God

6. Do you have concerns about anything influencing your child(ren) in a way you don't feel is appropriate?

7. What ways are you making sure that you are the number one influence in the lives of your child(ren)? Where can you improve?

8. Have you spent quality time with each child this week? Have you honored each child and shown love through their love language?

9. Do you feel like we have spent quality time together this week? Do you feel like you have been honoring in our relationship?

10. What unmet need or concern do you have in any area that we need to communicate about?
